

LIVESTRONG Day 2008

Celebrate the Lance Armstrong Foundation's LIVESTRONG Day 2008 with us! Join us for food & live music courtesy of the Songs for Kids Foundation, featuring bands Trances Arc & Spencer Durham.

Have fun and socialize with other young adult survivors at this FREE event! Receive information about important issues for cancer survivors including: late effects of cancer, health insurance, fertility and more. Organizations participating include Children's Healthcare of Atlanta Cancer Survivor Program, CURE Childhood Cancer, Votehealthcare.org, Fertile Hope, Young Adult Cancer Survivors of Atlanta, Planet Cancer, Camp Make-a-Dream and others!

Who: Young adult cancer survivors (or those currently on treatment) ages 16-35, plus 1 guest 16 years or older

When: May 13, 2008 6 pm—9 pm

Where: Camp Sunshine House
1850 Clairmont Rd
Decatur, GA 30033
404-325-7979 www.mycampsunshine.com

Music: Trances Arc (alternative rock) www.myspace.com/trancesarc
Spencer Durham (acoustic) www.myspace.com/spencerdurham

Food: Provided by The Varsity

For more information contact:

Amanda Masters

Phone: 404-325-7979

Email: Amanda@mycampsunshine.com

RSVP Not Required but Appreciated!